The Widow's Might

By Hazel Devo Batchelor
Start this serial today. It is the sensation of newspaperdom

Pay Carson realizes that she is not attractive to men. She reads a book entitled "The Charm of a Young Widow," and decides to become one during her vacation. Shopping for her new role is an exciting adventure, but her family is shocked at her new independence, and amazed at the change in her. She finally finds where she may find her shadow.

CHAPTER XII
IT WAS while she was pleasantly occupied with her new role that she was surprised to find that she was not alone in her new role. She was surprised to find that she was not alone in her new role. She was surprised to find that she was not alone in her new role.

Those who have been up against the matrimonial propeller will tell you that only one thing is worse than being a widow. It is being a widow who is not a widow. It is being a widow who is not a widow. It is being a widow who is not a widow.

Yours may have been married with Johnny Jones ever since the day you were born. Mrs. John Jones, you have to be a widow. You have to be a widow. You have to be a widow. You have to be a widow.

OF COURSE, this is madness, but it is only true that no matter how much you may be a widow, you are not a widow. You are not a widow. You are not a widow. You are not a widow.

HOW is a girl to judge if a man will make her a tender, loving husband? How is a girl to judge if a man will make her a tender, loving husband? How is a girl to judge if a man will make her a tender, loving husband?

THE old axiom that a good son makes a good husband is not a fallacy, for chief among feminine matters are the women who have married devoted sons and who have a happy home. # New York to Round Up Mashers; Slain Senegalese Fighter Buried

MELLIE DUNHAM. Henry Ford's fiddler, takes "Gram" to have her hair bobbed up for their vaudeville contract, which calls it is said, for $500 a week.

WRITES PLAY FOR DAD.—Cornelia Otis Skinner, daughter of the noted actor, Otis Skinner, going over a scene in the play which she has written and in which Mr. Skinner is appearing in Washington during Christmas week.

THE BEGINNING of the career of Paul Whiteman, jazz king, was laid in Frisco where he drove a taxi. In the above photo he is re-enacting the role by waiting for a taxi. The scene is laid at Des Moines, the state capital, where the noted leader was entertained by his "passenger."

GLADYS COOPER, RUDOLPH'S LATEST FLAME.—The English stage beauty is being courted, it is said, by Valentino, while his present wife, the former Winnifred Hyndout and otherwise known as Natcha Rambova, is going ahead with her divorce action in Paris. After establishing a Parisian residence to facilitate the suit, Rudy left for London.

PSYCHOLOGY for taxi cab drivers is the latest at Pennsylvania University. In the above photo is shown the prospective chauffeur, reacting to the signals as they appear on the apparatus before him.

BACK FROM QUEBEC.—Mrs. Anne Sullivan, principal in the sensational case of a few years ago, returns from her recent holiday to New York where, it is believed, she will start immediate divorce proceedings against her banker husband.

LANE'S DAUGHTER GOES ON STAGE.—The former Mrs. Nancy Lane Franklin (shown with her son), daughter of the late Franklin Lane, Canadian-born secretary of the interior in President Wilson's cabinet, has gone on the stage and is understudying Ina Claire, the actress, in New York. She was a dance partner of the Prince of Wales. Her father was born in Prince Edward Island, 1864.

COTHAM STARTS DRIVE AGAINST MASHERS.—Mrs. Mary Hamilton (seated), New York policewoman chief, instructing assistants in the round-up campaign. Mrs. Hamilton lays much of the wave of present promiscuity in New York to the modern way of rearing children. The modern girl, she says, is a natural gold digger.

JAP TROOPS SEIZE MUKDEN.—Above photo shows a detachment of the occupation troops entering the Manchurian city through an old gate in the north wall of the Manchurian city. The occupation was made at the urgent request of foreign powers who wished to protect their interests in the district. Henceforth no troops of opposing Chinese factions will be allowed to enter the city for military purposes.

BATTILING SIKI LAID TO REST.—Chanting an unintelligible dirge, Senegalese pallbearers lent a weird touch to the funeral, on December 16, of the one-time hero of the pugilistic world and conqueror of Carpenter. Siki was found dead on a New York street, slain, it is believed, in a quarrel with a bootlegger.

The Management of the
King Edward Hotel

Extend to their many patrons and friends
the heartiest good wishes for a Prosperous New Year.

10180 - 101st. St. Edmonton, Alberta

THIS famous hostelry, built in 1906, has been renewed, rejuvenated, brought thoroughly up to the minute in furnishing and equipment, and is today the finest modern hotel in Alberta. In altering and refurnishing the King Edward the most competent and artistic assistance was sought in the various departments, and the result is all that could be desired. More than 100 rooms all with every modern convenience and comfort . . . It is upon the Dining Room of the King Edward that the care and thought of the management has been particularly centred. Here the good things produced by a wonderful chef and culinary staff are enjoyed under the most delightful circumstances. The service as well as the surroundings enhance the delightful culinary creations which are praised by connoisseurs . . . The rooms are bright and cheerful, in fact the King Edward is the best lighted hostelry in the city, independent as it is of outside trouble by reason of special transformers and a direct city line . . . In short the King Edward is now recommended as a place of comfort and luxury for the discriminating and at an extremely moderate tariff.
